

Support Planning Professionals Learning Community

Wednesday, Feb. 22, 2017

10 – 11:30 a.m.

Description

Join us for the February Support Planning Professionals Learning Community; a monthly series relating to person centeredness, with a different topic and guest speakers each session. This month's topic:

WIOA impact on lead agency informed choice and person-centered practices

Bekah Kaufenberg-Satre, DHS along with Alyssa Klein and Chris McVey from DEED Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VRS) will discuss section 511 of the Workforce Innovations and Opportunity Act (WIOA). WIOA insures people with disabilities have opportunities to explore competitive, integrated employment; and section 511 specifically addresses new rules regarding working for subminimum wages. This presentation will focus on:

- Content of the rule
- WIOA 511 process for adults
- WIOA 511 process for individuals under 25
- Lead agency impacts

Each month, we aim to provide the most recent Person Centered related DHS updates and initiatives and include policy leads from

- Disability Services
 - Adult Mental Health
 - Children's Mental Health
 - Aging

Target Audience

Minnesota support planning professionals in all fields. Including but not limited to:

- Certified Assessors
 - Case Managers
 - Relocation Services
 - Care Coordinators
 - Support Planners
 - Person-Centered Planners
 - Managers and supervisors of the above
