ORDER TO PAY A FINE FOR BACKGROUND STUDY VIOLATION

Dear Jamilo Ali:

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is ordering you to pay a fine of $200 for one background study violation. Details of our findings are provided below. Our next steps and your options are also detailed.

Reason for the Fine

DHS is issuing this fine order based on your failure to comply with the following background study requirement:

Background Study Violation Determined on March 29, 2023:

During a licensing investigation, a DHS licensor determined that you failed to request a background study for one person before s/he began working in a position allowing direct contact with children served by your program without continuous direct supervision by an individual with a cleared background study.

On March 29, 2023, the DHS licensor observed P1 alone in the classroom with children. At the time of the licensing investigation, the license holder had not initiated a background study request to DHS for P1.

The failure to initiate background study requests on persons before they begin positions allowing direct contact with children served by the program is a violation of background study requirements.

Statute Violated: Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.03, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (4); and section 245C.04, subdivision 1, paragraph (g).

Fine: $200 (one background study violation - fineable at $200 per violation)

Corrective Action Required: You must comply with background study requirements in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 245C. Within 10 days from receipt of this order, submit written documentation to your licensor detailing how compliance will be maintained in the future.

Billing and Payment of the Fine

DHS will send you an invoice for the $200 fine. Payment must be made as directed on the invoice.

If you request a contested case hearing, as described below, do not pay the fine at this time. Following the contested case hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order on this matter.

Please note, you may not avoid payment of this fine by closing, selling, or otherwise transferring the license to a third party. In such an event, the license holder will be personally liable for payment. In the case of a corporation, each controlling individual is personally and jointly liable for payment.

Your Right to Appeal

You have the right to appeal the fine. Your request must be in writing and clearly state that you are requesting a contested case hearing for this matter. Your request must be made before the deadlines provided below. If you do not meet this deadline, you lose your right to an administrative appeal. The timeline to appeal began when you received this order.

If you are mailing your request, it must be sent by certified mail and postmarked within 10 calendar days from when you receive this order. Please send it to:

Office of Inspector General
Legal Counsel's Office
Attention: Licensing Legal Unit
PO Box 64953
St. Paul, MN 55164-0953

If your request is being personally delivered, it must be received by DHS within 10 calendar days from when you receive this order. Please bring it to:

Office of Inspector General
Attention: Licensing Legal Unit
444 Lafayette Road North
St. Paul, MN 55155

Upon DHS' receipt of your timely appeal, your case would be scheduled for a contested case hearing in front of an Administrative Law Judge. Following this hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order.
