ORDER TO PAY A FINE FOR BACKGROUND STUDY VIOLATION

Dear Sadiyo Warsame:

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is ordering you to pay a fine of $400 for two background study violations. Details of our findings are provided below. Our next steps and your options are also detailed.

Reason for the Fine

DHS is issuing this fine order based on your failure to comply with the following background study requirement:

Background Study Violation Determined on October 20, 2023

While preparing for a licensing review, a DHS licensor determined that you failed to meet the background study requirements for two staff persons who were working in a position allowing direct contact with children served by the program.

SP1 began working in a position allowing direct contact services to persons served by the program on June 12, 2021. You initiated a COVID-19 emergency background study request on June 11, 2021. On March 21, 2022, October 26, 2022, and December 20, 2022, you were informed that all individuals must have an enhanced background study to comply with federal requirements under the Child Care and Development Block Grant and it must be submitted on or before December 31, 2022.

SP2 began working in a position allowing direct contact services to persons served by the program on December 15, 2021. You initiated a COVID-19 emergency background study request on September 29, 2021. On March 21, 2022, October 26, 2022, and December 20, 2022, you were informed that all individuals must have an enhanced background study to comply with federal requirements under the Child Care and Development Block Grant and it must be submitted on or before December 31, 2022.

Statute Violated: Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.04, subdivision 1, paragraph (b); Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.05, subdivision 2.

Fee: $400 (two background study violations– fineable at $200 per violation)

Corrective Action Required: You must comply with background study requirements in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 245C. Within 10 days from receipt of this order, submit written documentation to your licensor detailing how compliance will be maintained in the future.

Billing and Payment of the Fine

DHS will send you an invoice for the $400 fine. Payment must be made as directed on the invoice.

If you request a contested case hearing, as described below, do not pay the fine at this time. Following the contested case hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order on this matter.

Please note, you may not avoid payment of this fine by closing, selling, or otherwise transferring the license to a third party. In such an event, the license holder will be personally liable for payment. In the case of a corporation, each controlling individual is personally and jointly liable for payment.

Your Right to Appeal

You have the right to appeal the fine. Your request must be in writing and clearly state that you are requesting a contested case hearing for this matter. Your request must be made before the deadlines provided below. If you do not meet this deadline, you lose your right to an administrative appeal. The timeline to appeal began when you received this order.

If you are mailing your request, it must be sent by certified mail and postmarked within 10 calendar days from when you receive this order. Please send it to:

Office of Inspector General
