ORDER TO PAY A FINE FOR BACKGROUND STUDY VIOLATIONS

Dear Shannon Campbell:

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is ordering you to pay a fine of $200 for one out of two background study violations. Details of our findings are provided below. Our next steps and your options are also detailed.

Reason for the Fine

DHS is issuing this fine order based on your failure to comply with the following background study requirement:

Background Study Violation Determined on December 5, 2023

During a licensing review, a DHS licensor determined that you failed to request background studies for two staff persons before they began working in positions allowing direct contact with children served by the program.

SP1 began working in a position allowing direct contact services to persons served by the program on October 21, 2023. You initiated a background study request on October 30, 2023

Because you self-corrected the background study violation involving SP1 before the Commissioner discovered the violation, the license holder is not being fined for the background study violation involving SP1.

SP2 began working in a position allowing direct contact with persons served by the program October 11, 2023. However, you did not initiate a background study request on SP2 until October 30, 2023.

Although you corrected the background study violation involving SP2 by submitting the background study before a DHS licensor became aware of the violations, at least 365 days had not passed since you previously self-corrected the background study for SP1.

Statute Violated: Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.04, subdivision 1, paragraph (g); Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.05, subdivision 2.

Fee: $200 (two background study violations– one fineable at $200 per violation)

Corrective Action Required: You must comply with background study requirements in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 245C. Within 10 days from receipt of this order, submit written documentation to your licensor detailing how compliance will be maintained in the future.

Billing and Payment of the Fine

DHS will send you an invoice for the $200 fine. Payment must be made as directed on the invoice.

If you request a contested case hearing, as described below, do not pay the fine at this time. Following the contested case hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order on this matter.

Please note, you may not avoid payment of this fine by closing, selling, or otherwise transferring the license to a third party. In such an event, the license holder will be personally liable for payment. In the case of a corporation, each controlling individual is personally and jointly liable for payment.

Your Right to Appeal

You have the right to appeal this fine. If you choose to appeal this order, you must use the Provider Hub (<https://providerhub.dhs.mn.gov/>) to submit your request. Your request must be made before the deadline provided below. If you do not meet this deadline, you lose your right to an administrative appeal. The timeline to appeal began when this order was issued in the Provider Hub.

Your request for an appeal must be submitted in the Provider Hub within 10 calendar days from the date it was issued in the Provider Hub.

Upon DHS' receipt of your timely appeal, your case would be scheduled for a contested case hearing in front of an Administrative Law Judge. Following this hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order.

Legal representation at the contested case hearing

You do not need a lawyer to appeal. However, a lawyer can help you with your appeal. The state or county will not get you a lawyer and will not pay for a lawyer. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may be able to get free legal advice or help with your appeal. To find out if free help is available, contact: Volunteer Lawyers Network at 612-752-6677; Central Minnesota Legal Services at 612-332-8151; Southern Minnesota Legal Services at 651-222-4731; or go to www.justice4mn.org to find a local legal services program that may be able to help you.
