ORDER TO PAY A FINE

Dear Diana Amortegui:

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is ordering you to pay a fine of $200 for the failure to report maltreatment at Urban Ventures Cornwell Early Learning Center, located at 2924 4th Ave S, Minneapolis, MN. Details of our findings are provided below. Our next steps and your options are also detailed.

REASON FOR FINE

Failure to Report Maltreatment

It was reported that a staff person (SP) "harshly" dragged an alleged victim (AV1) by the arm which left a red mark on AV1's arm. According to the report, this was the second incident of a similar nature within one month involving the SP and AV1. During the course of this investigation, information was obtained that showed the SP hit, pushed, and/or grabbed eight other alleged victims (AV2-AV9).

Multiple staff persons at various levels of authority were aware of possible maltreatment and failed to report maltreatment as required.

Fine: $200

Statute Violated: Minnesota Statutes, section 260E.06, subdivision 1.

Billing and Payment of the Fine

DHS will send you an invoice for the $200 fine. Payment must be made as directed via the Provider Hub.

If you request a contested case hearing, as described below, do not pay the fine at this time. Following the contested case hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order on this matter.

Please note, you may not avoid payment of this fine by closing, selling, or otherwise transferring the license to a third party. If this occurs, each controlling individual is personally responsible for payment.

If you do not pay the fine on or before the date specified on the invoice and you did not request a contested case hearing, as described below, the Commissioner may issue a second fine, may not issue or reissue a license, or may suspend the license until the license holder pays the fine.

YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL

You have the right to appeal this order. If you choose to appeal this order, you must use the Provider Hub (<https://providerhub.dhs.mn.gov/>) to submit your request. Your request must be made before the deadlines provided below. If you do not meet this deadline, you lose your right to an administrative appeal. The timeline to appeal began when this order was issued in the Provider Hub.

Your request for an appeal must be submitted in the Provider Hub within 10 calendar days from the date it was issued in the Provider Hub.

Upon DHS' receipt of your timely appeal, your case would be scheduled for a contested case hearing in front of an Administrative Law Judge. Following this hearing, the Commissioner of DHS will issue a final order.

Posting of this licensing action

You are required to place this Order to Pay a Fine and the Investigation Memorandum in a place that is clearly noticeable to the people receiving services and all visitors to the facility for two years, even if you appeal.
