ORDER TO PAY A FINE FOR BACKGROUND STUDY VIOLATION

Dear Logan Swann:

The Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF) is ordering you to pay a fine of $200 for one background study violation that occurred at Little Stangs Learning Center, located at 205 North Main Street, Buffalo Lake, Minnesota. Details of our findings are provided below. Our next steps and your options are also detailed.

Reason for the Fine

DCYF is issuing this fine order based on your failure to comply with the following background study requirement:

Background Study Violation Determined on November 21, 2025:

As a result of a licensing investigation, a DCYF licensor determined that you failed to provide continuous, direct supervision for one individual while their background study was in process, but not yet completed.

SP1 began working in a position allowing direct contact services to persons served by the program on October 27, 2025. You initiated a background study request for SP1 September 18, 2025. On September 22, 2025, DHS informed you that SP1 must be under continuous direct supervision. On the day of the licensing investigation, SP1 had unsupervised direct contact with children.

Statute Violated: Minnesota Statutes, section 245C.03, subdivision 5, paragraph (c); section 245C.04, subdivision 1, paragraph (a); and section 245C.05, subdivision 2, paragraph (a)

Fine: $200 (one background study violation – fineable at $200 per violation)

Corrective Action Required: Correct immediately and submit your response through the Provider Hub within 30 days from the date of this letter detailing how compliance has been achieved. You must maintain compliance going forward.

Billing and Payment of the Fine

After 10 calendar days from the date of this letter, DCYF will send you an invoice for the $200 fine through the Provider Hub. Payment must be made as directed on the invoice.

If you request a contested case hearing, as described below, do not pay the fine at this time. Following the contested case hearing, the Commissioner of DCYF will issue a final order on this matter.

Please note, you may not avoid payment of this fine by closing, selling, or otherwise transferring the license to a third party. If this occurs, you are personally responsible for payment. If you do not pay the fine on or before the date specified on the invoice and you did not request a contested case hearing, as described below, the Commissioner may issue a second fine, may not issue or reissue a license, or may suspend the license until the license holder pays the fine.

Your Right to Appeal

You have the right to appeal this fine. If you choose to appeal this order, you must use the Provider Hub (<https://providerhub.dhs.mn.gov/>) to submit your request. Your request must be made before the deadline provided below. If you do not meet this deadline, you lose your right to an administrative appeal. The timeline to appeal began when this order was issued in the Provider Hub.

Your request for an appeal must be submitted in the Provider Hub within 10 calendar days from the date it was issued in the Provider Hub.

Upon DCYF' receipt of your timely appeal, your case would be scheduled for a contested case hearing in front of an Administrative Law Judge. Following this hearing, the Commissioner of DCYF will issue a final order.

Legal representation at the contested case hearing

You do not need a lawyer to appeal. However, a lawyer can help you with your appeal. The state or county will not get you a lawyer and will not pay for a lawyer. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may be able to get free legal advice or help with your appeal. To find out if free help is available, contact: Volunteer Lawyers Network at 612-752-6677; Central Minnesota Legal Services at 612-332-8151; Southern Minnesota Legal Services at 651-222-4731; or go to www.justice4mn.org to find a local legal services program that may be able to help you.
