

Support Planning Professionals Learning Community

Wednesday, August 30, 2017

10 – 11:30 a.m.

Description

Join us for the August Support Planning Professionals Learning Community; a monthly series relating to person-centeredness, with a different topic and guest speakers each session. This month's topics include the following:

- Autism Strategies in Action Online Training
- Introducing Disability Hub MN
- A discussion about strengths

Autism Strategies in Action Online Training

Sirad Shirdon, DHS Early Intensive Developmental and Behavioral Intervention (EIDBI) Clinical Lead, will discuss the Autism Strategies in Action online training the EIDBI team is using for its service providers. In this presentation, the EIDBI team will share more information about the training, as well as provide participants with instructions on how to sign up for a free subscription.

Introducing Disability Hub MN

Andrea Werlinger, with DHS, will introduce Disability Hub MN, formerly known as the Disability Linkage Line. She will provide information on the change, what it means for people who use this service, and what's to come.

A discussion about strengths

Stacy Danov, PhD and Scott Schifsky, with the Community Capacity Building team will lead a discussion about strengths, one of the twelve high impact items from the lead agency review.

Each month, we aim to provide the most recent Person Centered related DHS updates and initiatives and include policy leads from:

- Disability Services
 - Mental Health
 - Aging

Target Audience

Minnesota support planning professionals in all fields. Including but not limited to:

- Certified Assessors
- Case Managers
- Relocation Services
- Care Coordinators
- Support Planners
- Person-Centered Planners
- Managers and supervisors of the above
